

April 18-22th

Spelling Words

Open Syllables	Review	Challenge
no noble male female	little	door
relate return lion	middle	order
baby basic bacon		remember

The room was in total silence.

Finally the focus was on music.

Extra words to practice to increase fluency

paper	silent	item	ladies
favor	acorn	bacon	music
bonus	layer	prefix	even
candle	doctor	basket	funny
tablet	yellow	winter	signal

Reading Vocabulary Words

1. beloved: dearly loved
2. promised: to do something you said you would definitely
3. wiggled: move from side to side in short, quick motions
4. gleamed: "shone or glowed"
5. glanced: to look at something very quickly
6. noble: to show qualities of high moral character

Reading: My Home in Alaska Nutik, the Wolf Pup

Spelling: Open Syllables

Study your words every day!

Math: Create your own survey. Using the data, create a tally chart, bar graph, and picture graph

Chapter 9 Telling Time Analog, digital, to the hour, half hour, 5 minutes, and minute.

**Practice addition and subtraction facts****

Phonics: open syllables (ex. pa per, si lent, fa vor)

When a syllable ends in a vowel, the vowel is usually long. This is an open syllable

Social Studies: Geographical landforms and how they change

Science: Life Cycle of a Chick Fun Facts

Skeletal/muscular system and its functions

Ways to keep our bodies healthy / Exercise & nutrition

Grammar: Pronoun/verb agreement Book Titles

Journal Writing: How to properly write a journal entry following the given rubric

Important Information

**Ladies please return Father/Daughter Dance slip A.S.A.P****

Please make sure your child is prepared for school on a daily basis: Reading book, homework, agenda book.

Students are to fill out their agenda on a daily basis and take it home to be signed. This gives you the opportunity to view what we accomplished in class and/or if your child needs to complete any work that wasn't finished in class.

Students who do not finish their work will have the words "Late/Incomplete" written on the top of their paper with the date. A 5 point deduction will be made off their original score. All students will lose a recess or not participate in stations until their work is completed.

Your help is much appreciated!!

